WELCOME

Welcome to Team Luciani!

At Team Luciani, we exist to serve people in difficult moments, deliver work we stand behind, and operate with integrity - every job, every day. We hold ourselves to high standards because our clients, partners, and teammates depend on us to do things the right way, even when it is hard or inconvenient.

This Employee Handbook outlines the policies, standards, and expectations that govern the employment relationship and how work is performed at Luciani Enterprises. All employees are expected to read, understand, and comply with the policies in this handbook, as well as all applicable federal, state, and local laws.

PURPOSE

This handbook is designed to:

- Explain Company policies, procedures, and workplace expectations
- Define employee responsibilities and standards of conduct
- Provide general information about employment practices

This handbook is intended as a guide to working at Luciani Enterprises. It is not a contract of employment and does not guarantee employment for any specific period of time.

SECTION I - INTRODUCTION

ABOUT OUR CORE VALUES

At Team Luciani, our Core Values define who we are and how we operate. When a team is aligned around shared values and consistently acts on them, strong results follow. Our ability to deliver high-quality work, earn trust, and perform at a high level is a direct result of how our team shows up every day - not just what we do, but how we do it. These Core Values are the foundation of our culture and a key reason Team Luciani consistently achieves strong outcomes.

Luciani Enterprises LLC operates by four Core Values: We Are One Team, Dedicated to Service; We Act Like We Own It; We Are Always Growing; & We Care

These Core Values establish the standards by which work is performed, decisions are made, and accountability is measured. They are not aspirational statements or marketing language; they are enforceable behavioral expectations that apply to every employee, at every level. A detailed explanation of each Core Value, including what it means in practice, follows below.

The Role of Core Values

Luciani Enterprises LLC uses its Core Values as a formal standard for evaluation and decision-making, including but not limited to hiring and promotion decisions, performance evaluations, coaching and corrective action, and discipline up to and including termination of employment. Failure to consistently demonstrate these Core Values may result in corrective action, regardless of role, tenure, or technical expertise.

Consistent adherence to these Core Values is a condition of continued employment. No position, experience level, or skill set supersedes them.

Additional Clarifications

The Core Values described in this handbook do not create a contract, guarantee employment, or alter the at-will employment relationship.

Luciani Enterprises LLC reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to determine whether conduct aligns with these Core Values.

Nothing in this section limits the Company's right to manage operations, address performance concerns, impose discipline, or terminate employment in accordance with applicable law.

CORE VALUES

We Are One Team, Dedicated to Service

- We operate as one team - across roles and departments - with a shared responsibility to support one another and deliver the best possible outcomes for our customers.
- We collaborate and step in when teammates need support, especially during high-pressure situations.
- We prioritize customer outcomes and company success over individual preferences.
- We communicate clearly, professionally, and respectfully, particularly when problems arise.

What this means in practice: Refusing to help, undermining teammates, or creating internal friction violates this Core Value. "That's not my job" is not acceptable behavior at Luciani Enterprises.

We Act Like We Own It

- We take ownership of our work, our decisions, and our results.
- We follow established processes and safeguard company resources.
- We treat time, equipment, information, and money as if they were our own.
- We raise issues early, take responsibility for mistakes, and focus on solutions rather than blame.
- We do what needs to be done without waiting to be chased.

What this means in practice: Excuses, finger-pointing, or ignoring known problems violate this Core Value. Failure to follow procedures, protect company property, or meet responsibilities is a performance issue.

We Are Always Growing

- We believe continuous improvement is essential - for individuals and for the company.
- We actively develop our skills, knowledge, and performance.
- We accept feedback without defensiveness and apply it.
- We adapt to new tools, systems, and expectations as the company evolves.
- We take ownership of the learning required to perform our role effectively.

What this means in practice: Repeating the same mistakes after coaching violates this Core Value. Resistance to training, improvement, or accountability is unacceptable.

We Care

- We recognize that our work affects people during stressful and often disruptive situations. How we treat others matters.
- We treat coworkers, customers, vendors, and partners with respect and professionalism.
- We act with honesty, integrity, and empathy.
- We protect the reputation of Luciani Enterprises through our conduct - on and off the job.

What this means in practice: Disrespectful behavior, harassment, dishonesty, or reckless conduct violates this Core Value. How results are achieved matters - not just the outcome.

Luciani Enterprises LLC operates in a fast-paced, service-driven environment. Employees may be required to adjust schedules, work additional hours, respond to urgent situations, or modify assignments as business needs require.

This expectation reflects the Company's Core Values, particularly We Act Like We Own It and We Are One Team, Dedicated to Service.

SECTION V — WAGE & HOUR POLICIES

PAY PRACTICES & COMPLIANCE

PAYDAYS

Employees are paid on a regular schedule determined by the Company. If a scheduled payday falls on a weekend or Company-observed holiday, payment will be issued on the preceding business day, where practicable.

Employees are encouraged to promptly report any pay discrepancies so they can be reviewed and corrected.

TIMEKEEPING & ACCURACY

All non-exempt employees are required to accurately record all hours worked, including:

- Start and end times
- Meal periods
- Overtime
- Travel time that is compensable under the law

OFF-THE-CLOCK WORK PROHIBITED

Employees may not perform work without recording their time. This includes:

- Working before clocking in or after clocking out
- Working during unpaid meal periods
- Performing job duties without authorization

Any employee who performs unauthorized work must still record the time worked and will be paid accordingly. Failure to follow timekeeping procedures may result in corrective action, but wages will never be withheld for time actually worked.

Luciani Enterprises, LLC

SECTION V — WAGE & HOUR POLICIES

OVERTIME

Non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime pay in accordance with applicable law. Overtime is generally paid at one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay for hours worked over forty (40) in a workweek, unless otherwise required by law.

Overtime must be authorized in advance when practicable.

Working unauthorized overtime is a policy violation, but all overtime worked will be paid.

MEAL PERIODS

Where required by Connecticut law, eligible employees will be provided with meal periods. Employees must accurately record meal periods as required.

Supervisors are responsible for ensuring employees are able to take required meal periods whenever operationally feasible.

SECTION V — LEAVES OF ABSENCE & TIME OFF

Luciani Enterprises LLC provides time off and leaves of absence as required by Connecticut and federal law and, where applicable, by Company policy. This section explains legally required leaves, Company-provided time off, and how different leave programs interact.

Nothing in this section is intended to provide paid leave, job protection, or benefits beyond what the law requires unless expressly stated.

INTERACTION BETWEEN TIME OFF & LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Company-provided PTO, holiday pay, and unpaid time off are separate from and do not replace any legally required leave, including CT PFML, FMLA, paid sick leave (where applicable), military leave, or jury duty.

Employees will not be required to use PTO or unpaid time off in place of legally protected leave unless permitted by law.

REQUESTING TIME OFF OR LEAVE

Employees requesting time off or leave must:

- Provide notice as required by law and Company procedure
- Submit required documentation in a timely manner
- Communicate regarding leave status and return-to-work expectations

Failure to follow procedures may delay processing but will not result in denial of legally protected leave.

SECTION VI — LEAVES OF ABSENCE & TIME OFF

Subsection A - Leaves of Absence

CONNECTICUT PAID FAMILY & MEDICAL LEAVE (CT PFML)

Connecticut law provides eligible employees access to paid family and medical leave benefits through a state-administered program.

CT PFML benefits are administered and paid by the State of Connecticut, not by Luciani Enterprises LLC. Eligibility, benefit amounts, duration, and qualifying reasons are determined by the state.

Qualifying reasons generally include:

- An employee's own serious health condition
- Care for a qualifying family member
- Bonding with a new child
- Certain military-related exigencies
- Other reasons as defined by law

NOTICE & COORDINATION

Employees are responsible for providing required notice and documentation to the state and to the Company as applicable. The Company will coordinate job-protected leave obligations under other applicable laws when required.

FEDERAL FAMILY & MEDICAL LEAVE (FMLA)

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides eligible employees of covered employers with up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave during a rolling 12-month period for qualifying family and medical reasons, in accordance with federal law.

ELIGIBILITY

An employee is eligible for FMLA leave if all of the following requirements are met:

- The employee has been employed by the Company for at least twelve (12) months (which need not be consecutive);
- The employee has worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the start of the leave; and
- The employee works at, or reports to, a location where the Company employs at least fifty (50) employees within seventy-five (75) miles.

QUALIFYING REASONS FOR LEAVE

FMLA leave may be taken for one or more of the following reasons, as defined by law:

- The employee's own serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the essential functions of their job;
- The birth of a child and care for the newborn child;
- Placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition;
- Certain qualifying exigencies arising out of the fact that a spouse, child, or parent is a covered military member on active duty or has been notified of an impending call to active duty; or
- To care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness, as provided by law.

SERVPRO TEAM LUCIANI EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Luciani Enterprises, LLC

Subsection A - Leaves of Absence

PAY AND BENEFITS

FMLA leave is unpaid. However, employees may be required or may elect to use accrued paid leave concurrently with FMLA leave, in accordance with Company policy and applicable law. During approved FMLA leave, the Company will maintain group health insurance coverage on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work, subject to employee premium contributions.

NOTICE AND CERTIFICATION

Employees are responsible for providing timely notice of the need for FMLA leave and sufficient information to allow the Company to determine whether the leave may qualify for FMLA protection. When the need for leave is foreseeable, employees must provide notice in advance as required by law.

The Company may require medical certification, recertification, or other documentation supporting the need for leave, as permitted by the FMLA. Failure to provide required documentation may result in delay or denial of FMLA protection.

JOB RESTORATION

Upon return from approved FMLA leave, eligible employees will generally be restored to the same or an equivalent position, with equivalent pay, benefits, and terms and conditions of employment, as required by law.

COORDINATION WITH OTHER LEAVE

FMLA leave will run concurrently with other applicable federal, state, or Company-provided leave to the extent permitted or required by law. The Company will administer and coordinate leave obligations in compliance with all applicable regulations.

Nothing in this policy is intended to expand employee rights beyond those provided by the Family and Medical Leave Act or applicable law.

INTERACTION BETWEEN CT PFML AND FMLA

When an employee qualifies for both CT PFML and FMLA for the same qualifying event:

- Leaves may run concurrently to the extent permitted by law
  - CT PFML provides wage replacement through the state
  - FMLA provides job protection where applicable
  - The Company will designate and administer leave in accordance with legal requirements.

SECTION VI — LEAVES OF ABSENCE & TIME OFF

Subsection A - Leaves of Absence

CONNECTICUT PAID SICK LEAVE

Luciani Enterprises LLC complies with the Connecticut Paid Sick Leave Act and all other applicable paid sick leave laws. Where required by law, eligible employees are provided paid sick leave in accordance with statutory requirements.

Paid sick leave accrues at a rate of one (1) hour for every thirty (30) hours worked, up to a maximum of forty (40) hours per year. Accrued paid sick leave may be used after one hundred twenty (120) days of employment, as permitted by law.

Paid sick leave may be used for qualifying reasons, including but not limited to the employee's own illness, injury, or preventive care; and matters related to family violence or sexual assault affecting the employee or a covered family member.

Eligibility for paid sick leave, accrual, permissible uses, and administration of this benefit are determined by applicable law and may depend on factors such as job classification and employer size. Nothing in this policy is intended to create, nor shall it be interpreted as creating, an entitlement to paid sick leave beyond what is required by law.

OTHER STATUTORY LEAVES

Luciani Enterprises LLC provides additional leaves as required by law, which may include:

- Military leave (USERRA)
- Jury duty

The Company may modify the list of recognized holidays, substitute alternative days, or require operations to remain open based on business needs.

EMPLOYEES REQUIRED TO WORK ON HOLIDAYS

Due to the nature of the Company's operations, some employees — including field, emergency response, or on-call personnel — may be required to work on Company-recognized holidays.

HOLIDAY PAY

- Holiday pay, if granted, is discretionary, not earned, accrued, or vested
- Holiday pay has no cash value outside the holiday itself and is not paid out upon separation
- Employees who work on a Company-recognized holiday will be paid their regular rate of pay for all hours worked
